We will assemble all of these desserts into platters for our event.

Chocolate Covered Strawberries-3 dozen per provider

The chocolate covered strawberries have been the biggest hit of the evening. Please consider making these treats. They're usually the first to go.

Please note that we have some dairy free children. If there are children requiring a special dessert set aside in their name, please feel free to contact me. You can label a container for the event and let your child and date know to look for it in our food room. There will be fruit platters served as well.
