
Cedar Hill Character Education News

October is RESPECT month at Cedar Hill. Students will be engaged in reading, talking, singing, dancing, drawing and modeling what it is like to be respectful. You may want to discuss with your child what it means to be respectful at home and at school.

RESPECT

Looks Like:	Sounds Like:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Helping others❖ Hands to yourself❖ Friendly faces	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Quiet voices❖ Kind words❖ Friendly laughter❖ “Please” and “Thank You”

Suggestions for read alouds with respect as a theme include:

“One” by Kathryn Otoshi

“Westlandia” by Paul Fleishman

“Granddaddy’s Gift” by Margaret King Mitchell